-BRIEF WIRINGS-

THE TREATY RATIFIED.

Unanimous Action of the Senate on the Seal Fisheries Arbitration.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Two hours spent in executive session by the senate yesterday sufficed to complete the consideration of the Behring sea arbitration treaty and it was ratified by an unanimous vote at the conclusion of the discussion. The debate itself was without incident. After the result had been announced the usual resolution notifying the president of the action of the senate was passed and the consideration of the treaty was complete.

There was an air of relief about the senators as they emerged from the chamber where they had been sitting behind closed doors for so many hours during the past two weeks. All of them were glad that the troublesome treaty had been disposed of at last.

At a meeting of the cabinet it was practically agreed to accept Lord Salisbury's proposition for a renewal of last year's modus vivendi with certain limitations with the character of damages to be left to the determination of the arbitrators. It is expected that the president will communicate his views on the subject to Sir Julian Pauncefote in a few days.

Remember Them Hard.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Representative Watson, the leader of the People's party last night said: "This action in the house on the silver bill is the death-knell of the old Democratic organization. Hundreds of thousands of voters in the southern states have felt that if financial relief could be had Democracy as now organized would give that relief if it had a chance. With a majority of 148 in the house of representatives it certainly had a chance to do it. It was only by the help of nine People's party members and eleven Republicans that this immense Democratic majority escaped a Waterloo. Consequently the most conservative Democrats in the south know now that the Democratic majority wielded under the present organization mean absolutely nothing so far as practical legislation is concerned. No power on earth can now keep Georgia from going into the electoral college with the People's party convention. I confidently believe that the same is true of several other states of the south. What the Democrats may do with the silver bill hereafter is comparatively unimportant. They have had their opportunity."

Anybody Except Hill.

St. Paul, March 31.—That ex-President Cleveland is still the idol of the Minnesota Democracy was abundantly evidenced this morning in the expressions of the delegates to the state Democratic convention prior to the assembling of the body. If there was a Hill man in the crowd at the various hotels he did not care to show himself, and the few people who mentioned his name did so only in a deprecating manner. There seems to be a general consensus of opinion that the ex-governor and present senator from New York is not regarded by the Democrats of Minnesota as a man of sufficient capacity.
